Pie with gravy - at last!

Homeward bound

With the walking football tournament over it was time to retreat to our hotel room, take another hot shower to defrost and enter into relax mode. I slept well overnight. During our 3 hour bus trip to Heathrow Airport team members chatted about what the future might hold. No doubt I will meet some of the guys again. We bid everyone farewell at the airport and went our different ways. Heather and I spent a couple of nights in a hotel near the airport to wind down, repack our gear and get organised for our trip back to Brisbane. It's been a long 4 months but we have lots of memories. We am not sure if this will be the last time I see UK/Europe. But that's what we both said the last time!
